on the Fairways*

While this mountain town may be internationally renowned for its champagne powder and world-class skiing, locals know that summer is the best kept secret when swaths of green replace the white bands of snow. Emerald fairways flanked by wildflowers call out to golfers, young and old, as Park City is home to an impressive array of public and private courses. Celebrating the topography of the land, the sport's iconic designers have made their mark on the area's luxury golf communities and courses. With majestic peaks, pastoral farms, red rock canyons and sapphire skies as backdrops, a golfer's paradise can be found in Park City. Whether you purchase a property in one of Park City's impressive golf communities, join a club, or play a round on public links, golf is a great way to share time with the family and enjoy the splendor of summertime in Utah.

VICTORY RANCH

The Setting: This secluded sanctuary, set on 6,700 acres of backcountry wilderness, offers the solace of nature and five-star amenities. The family-centric community has everything from cozy golf cabins to 80-acre ranch estates. Outfitters are on hand at The Post for mountain biking adventures or fly fishing on the trout-filled Upper Provo, a four-mile stretch that snakes through the property. There's also luxury yurt camping, a 5-stand shooting facility, archery, heated-year-round-pool, spa, movement studio, gourmet restaurants and more.

The Course: True mountain golf, this Rees Jones course, set at 6,700 to 7,000 feet, takes advantage of its high country topography, challenging golfers with natural hazards, elevation changes and myriad risk versus reward shots. Dramatic mountain views, wildlife sightings and meticulous care make for a memorable 18 holes. With junior tees at 2,755 yards and the Pro tees at 7,600 yards, the course can be enjoyed by players of all skill levels.

Standout Hole: The 17th hole is the course's jewel with its awe-inspiring 360-degree panoramic view. "When I stand atop our signature Hole #17 tee in the twilight hours it gives me the same feeling I had the first time I walked through Amen Corner at Augusta. This is what golf is about." Chris Brandenburg, Head Golf Professional.

Best Family Amenity: Newly built, The Barn features two adjoining buildings: The Family Barn is kid heaven with its ice cream shop, game room, sports court, arts and crafts studio and general store. Parents appreciate chill time at the adults-only Wellness Barn with its Zen spa, Pilates and yoga classes and fresh-pressed juice bar. Outside, everyone loves the winding water slide, massive pool, bocce ball court and paddle tennis pavilion.

Insider: "If we had to describe The Barn, we would say it's the 'holy grail' of fun for kids and adults of all ages. From paint nights to nature walks, The Barn encourages kids to explore their creative sides while also taking in the captivating wildlife that surrounds the utopia called Victory Ranch. While the kids are playing basketball and hunting for deer antlers, the adults are able to tap into their inner child over a glass of wine and a paint brush. Most children and adults thirst for their own nirvana—ours is called The Barn at Victory Ranch," said Lucy and John Caracappa, owners at Victory Ranch.
